

question is, shall LB 138 be indefinitely postponed? Those in favor of the motion vote aye, those opposed nay. You are voting on the motion to indefinitely postpone the bill. Simple majority. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Record.

CLERK: 11 ayes, 16 nays on the motion to indefinitely postpone, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The motion fails. Back to the bill. Discussion on the bill. Senator Schmit, your light.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Well, Mr. President, and members, I am going to be very brief. This bill has taken far too much time and I am guilty for having brought it up. But I want to point out that it is this kind of bill which uses up the time of this Legislature and at one time or another you are going to face the fact that you are not fulfilling the responsibility which we are really set out to do by passing the buck to someone else. They have no resources. I noted a number of legislators up there who did not vote. I would hope that those individuals who voted to indefinitely postpone the bill will continue to vote that way. I would hope that those individuals who did not vote on the indefinite postponement motion will not vote to advance the bill. I would like to see the bill remain on General File.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you, sir. Any other discussion? No lights. Senator Johnson, any concluding remarks? Call of the house has been requested. Those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record.

CLERK: 12 ayes, 3 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The house is under call. Members, please check in. Those outside the Legislative Chamber, please return and record your presence. The house is under call. Senators Baack and Chambers. Senator Coordsen, record your presence. Senator Conway, the house is under call. Senator Hall, please. Senator Lynch, the house is under call. Senator Lynch, the house is under call. Senator Landis, please. Senators Chambers, Landis and Lynch, the house is under call. While we are waiting, we have some guests under the north balcony, the mother and step-father of Senator Stan Schellpeper, Helen and Eart Schulz of Norfolk, and sister and nephew of the Senator, Janet and Barry Hinkeldey from Prospect Heights, Illinois. Would you folks please stand and be recognized. Thank you. We are happy you could be here today. Senator Johnson, we are
